

“Seeds & Sprouts as Culture Keepers and Purveyors”

Presented by Dr. Janet Gilmore

February 20, 2021

CHAT TRANSCRIPT

00:50:36.537,00:50:39.537

Jeanette Rickman: Loved Paul's book "Where Our Food Comes From"

00:50:46.915,00:50:49.915

Lora Lee: Thanks. I can see Janet now.

01:12:04.254,01:12:07.254

Kendra Masters: I have to go but thank you so much to the driftless historium for putting this on and to Janet for your work and passion.

01:12:50.443,01:12:53.443

Destinee Udelhoven: Thanks, Kendra! We'll send a link to the recording, in case you want to catch up later.

01:21:38.753,01:21:41.753

Elizabeth Brewer: Thank you so much for this event. Unfortunately, I need to leave, but I learned a lot and really enjoyed. I look forward to more such events.

01:31:07.733,01:31:10.733

Lora Lee: I love that story pillow!

01:33:06.625,01:33:09.625

Jeanette Rickman: thank you for your events.

01:36:02.057,01:36:05.057

Snyderbear1: Hi Janet & Destinee - thank you for putting this together.. It is good to hear folks talk about something that is much more than just a hobby to some. Culture & heritage is passed on through many avenues, and food growing and food use is one of these.. Piinagigiwi - Bill

01:42:50.593,01:42:53.593

Destinee Udelhoven: Good point, Bill! #seedsarelife

01:48:25.004,01:48:28.004

Amanda DePagter: We're still tending the garden with great help from the local Ho Chunk youth group; looking forward to another growing season just around the corner

01:49:45.091,01:49:48.091

Destinee Udelhoven: So good to have you both here with us today, Mr. Quackenbush and Amanda! This looks like a meaningful project. I'll have to go check it out!

01:52:45.835,01:52:48.835

Amanda DePagter: Thank you Destinee for providing this virtual education platform! Thank you Janet for an enlightening presentation! And thank you Bill Quackenbush for all of the knowledge you have shared and the time and efforts that you have afforded the Madison community through the many projects and events that you have contributed to!

01:54:16.558,01:54:19.558

Snyderbear1: Perhaps a field trip is in order to discuss the possibility of developing a virtual presentation focused on what Amanda and all her work has involved. :) Food is life, and it is to be shared... Bill

01:58:08.808,01:58:11.808

I kruckman: Thank you Janet! Love your passion and gift for sharing these stories!

01:59:25.701,01:59:28.701

Emily Rose Haga: I really loved this talk on a Saturday and learned so much. Thank you so much Janet for an introduction to so many ways people connect to seeds & sprouts across the Driftless!! It really makes me want to hear more, and hope this is just the start. I'm so grateful.

02:00:18.559,02:00:21.559

Lora Lee: Thank you for such a great presentation!

02:00:39.579,02:00:42.579

Emily Rose Haga: Thanks again to everyone!

02:01:20.088,02:01:23.088

Lynn Messinger: Thank you Janet!! Fascinating!

02:02:32.515,02:02:35.515

Amanda DePagter: Thanks Janet!